The Worcester Pistol and Rifle Club, Inc.

By-Laws

Drafted June 1955 – Revised June 4, 2009
Effective June 5, 2009 at 12:01 a.m.

ARTICLE I

NAME The name of this organization, hereinafter called the “Club,” shall be the “Worcester Pistol and Rifle Club, Inc.”

ARTICLE II

OBJECT The object of this club shall be the encouragement and improvement of pistol and rifle marksmanship and the promotion of safety in the use of firearms through public awareness and education through good community relations.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP There shall be four (4) classes of membership: Member, Life Member, Junior Member, and Honorary Member.

Anyone may become a member upon completion of the application form, review of the Executive Committee, approval by the voting membership at a regular meeting, subscribing to the following pledge, and paying the initiation fee and dues as prescribed in Article VI of these By-Laws.

The Worcester Pistol & Rifle Club Pledge

I certify that I am a legal resident of the United States and not a member of any organization or group which has as any part of its program the attempt to overthrow the government of the United States or of any of its political subdivisions by force or violence; that I have never been convicted of a crime of violence; and that, if admitted to membership in the Worcester Pistol and Rifle Club, I will faithfully endeavor to fulfill the obligations of good sportsmanship and good citizenship.

Regular Member: Anyone twenty-one (21) years of age or older who is not a Life or Honorary member.

A Life Member is anyone who has been a Regular Member in good standing for twenty-five (25) cumulative years or was formerly a Paid Life Member. Life Members shall be exempt from the payment of dues and/or assessments and shall retain all privileges of a Regular Member.

(Paid Life Member class was deleted on February 4, 1999 in accordance with Article XI of this document.)

Junior Member: Anyone who is twelve (12) years of age but under twenty-one (21) years of age. This membership will expire at the Annual Meeting following the member’s twenty-first birthday at which time the member must become a Regular Member.

Junior Members must have on file with the Club a signed waiver of liability from the parents or legal guardian and notarized by a Massachusetts Notary Public. Junior Members do not have voting privileges.

There shall be two grades of Junior Membership:

Basic Junior - Any Junior Member who does not have a valid Massachusetts driver’s license and a valid Massachusetts Firearms Identification card (FID).

- Basic Junior Members:
- Do not receive a key to the Club.
 - Are not allowed to bring guests to the Club.
 - Must be accompanied by an adult member while at the Club.

Advanced Junior – Any Junior Member who holds a valid Massachusetts driver's license and a valid Massachusetts FID card.

Advanced Junior Members:

- Receive a key to the Club
- Are not allowed to bring guests to the Club
- Need not be accompanied by an adult while at the Club.

Honorary Member: Any five (5) voting members of the Club may join in nominating, in writing to the Executive Committee, whether a member of the Club or not, to be an Honorary Member. The Executive Committee shall, after considering the qualifications of the nominee, report to the Club at any regular meeting, not later than two months after receiving the nomination, with their recommendation on that candidate. A ballot shall then be taken on the election of the nominee. A two-thirds vote of those present, (a quorum being present,) will elect the nominee to be an Honorary Member. Honorary Members shall be exempt from the payment of initiation fee and dues and/or assessments and shall not hold office or vote. The Executive Committee shall review honorary memberships annually.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS The Officers of the Club shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and an Executive Officer. These five and the latest Past-President, Ex Officio, shall constitute the Executive Committee. These officers shall be elected by a majority vote, by ballot, at the Annual Meeting of the Club, and shall hold office for one year. The Officers of the Club may appoint one or more assistants to aid them in the performance of their duties but shall remain responsible for their proper execution. Officers who are members in good standing with the Club may be eligible for re-election.

ARTICLE V

DUTIES OF OFFICERS The duties of the Officers of the Club shall be as follows:

The President shall preside at Club meetings; shall be Chairman of the Executive Committee and, Ex Officio, a member of all other committees; shall appoint committees when so directed by a vote of the Club or when the need therefor shall be apparent to him; shall approve for payment such bills as may be properly chargeable to the Club; and shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Club. The President shall appoint a nominating committee of four (4) voting members at the October meeting to prepare a slate of officers for presentation at the December meeting. The President shall be excluded from this committee. Approval of expenditures in excess of $1,000.00, other than normal operating expenses, must be approved by the membership at a regular meeting. The Executive Committee may approve emergency expenses.

The Vice-President shall assist the President as required; shall preside at Club meetings in the absence of the President; and may perform any other of the President's duties in the event of his prolonged absence or inability to serve.

The Secretary shall keep and record a true record of the transactions of the Club and of the Executive Committee; shall have custody of all records of the Club except those of the Treasurer; shall conduct all essential correspondence for the Club; shall make or cause to be made at appropriate times all required reports; shall give timely notice to all members of meetings of the Club; shall notify the other members of the Executive Committee of meetings of that body; shall be responsible for the collection of all fees, dues, and assessments and turn them over to the Treasurer taking his receipt therefor; shall make to the Club at the Annual Meeting a report of the last year's activities; shall make to the Executive Committee or to the Club such other reports of the affairs of the Club as may from time to time be needed; and shall, at the conclusion of the period for which he has been elected, turn over to his successor in office all records and other property of the Club which may be in his possession.

The Treasurer shall have charge of all funds of the Club; shall deposit them in such bank or banks as may be approved by the Executive Committee; shall pay from such funds all bills of the Club which have been approved for payment by the President or by some other member of the Club to whom the President has delegated his authority so to do; shall keep an accurate and complete account of his receipts and disbursements with appropriate vouchers; shall make to the Club at the Annual Meeting a report of the financial affairs of the Club for the past year; shall prepare, annually, a budget to guide the expenditures of the Club for the following year; shall make to the Executive Committee or to the Club such other financial reports as may from time to time be needed; and, at the conclusion of the period for which he has been elected, shall turn over to his successor in office all funds and records of the Club which may be in his possession or custody. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the filing of the Corporation's Annual Charter with the state and shall pay the necessary fees thereof. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the timely renewal of all necessary insurance policies. The Treasurer shall make all financial records available for an internal or independent audit whenever it is deemed necessary.

The Executive Officer, either directly or through an appointed assistant, shall have charge of the ranges of the Club, of the scheduling and preparing for matches at Club ranges or at ranges of other clubs, of the conducting of practice and match firing, of the collecting and turning over to the Treasurer of registration and match fees, of the purchase and sale to members of the Club of supplies, and shall make timely reports of registered matches as circumstances may require. The Executive Officer shall be responsible for the acquisition of the proper amount of keys to the Club to be available.

The Executive Committee subject to the approval of the membership may fill a vacancy in one of the elective offices, which may occur between annual meetings. The appointee to fill such a vacancy shall serve until the next annual meeting.

The Executive Committee shall have general supervision and control of the activities of the Club. Major matters involving club policy or any especially important or unusual question shall be submitted by the Executive Committee to vote of the Club at any regular meeting. The notice by which a meeting is called shall contain information concerning any important question to be submitted at the meeting.

Although not necessarily specifically mentioned above, it shall be the duty of each officer of the Club to perform in an effective and cooperative manner all tasks and duties normally pertaining to the office, which he holds.

ARTICLE VI

FEES Yearly dues and assessments for the following calendar year shall be established by the Executive Committee and announced in the Newsletter or the annual mailing for renewals.

ARTICLE VII

MEETINGS The Annual Meeting of the Club shall be held at the Club House on the evening of the first Thursday after the first Wednesday in January of each year. Additional meetings shall be held at the call of the Executive Committee. Normally at least once each month excepting July and August.

All members in good standing, except Junior Members or Honorary Members, shall be entitled to vote and to hold office.

Fifteen voting members in good standing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

The Executive Committee shall meet at the call of the President, or, in case of his prolonged absence or inability to serve, at the call of the Vice-President. Three members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except as herein otherwise provided.

All meetings shall be conducted in accordance with "Robert's Rules of Order"

ARTICLE VIII

COMPETITIONS All rifle and pistol competitions held by the Club shall be conducted under the rules of the sanctioning body.

ARTICLE IX

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP If it shall be determined by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the Executive Committee (four votes required) that the conduct of any member has been such that his continued association with the Club would be injurious to the welfare or the good name of the Club, the member shall be so notified by a written statement of charges constituting the basis for action, handed to him by two or more members of the Executive Committee or mailed by the Secretary by registered mail to the last known address of the member. This notice shall advise the member of the place, date, and time of a meeting of the Executive Committee to be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the serving or mailing of the notice, at which meeting action will be taken by the Executive Committee concerning termination of membership. He shall be entitled to appear before the Committee at this meeting and/or to submit evidence in his own behalf. At this called meeting, a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Executive Committee shall terminate the membership in the Club of the member concerned. The accused party has the right to appeal the decision of the Executive Committee at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

Any member of the Executive Committee may be removed from office by a majority vote of the Executive Committee. This vote may be subject to review at the next regularly scheduled Club meeting.

Any Club member activated for military service for a period of time greater than 30 days shall remain a member in good standing, free from all dues and assessments, for the duration of said service upon submitting proper documentation.

Any member who is delinquent in payment of dues shall cease to be a member of the Club. It is the obligation of each member to promptly pay his dues. It is not the duty or the obligation of the Club or its officers to notify delinquent members of their arrears.

The Executive Committee shall grant, upon the written request of a member, a leave of absence. A leave of absence shall require no initiation fee upon returning. A written resignation shall require one half of the current initiation fee upon returning. No written notice of resignation shall require the full current initiation fee upon returning.

ARTICLE X

STEERING COMMITTEE This committee shall be responsible for future welfare of the Club through long term planning. The size of this committee shall be at least one (1) but never more than five (5) voting members who are not members of the Executive Committee. The President shall appoint a chairman and, as required, members to the Steering Committee. This committee will study the Club's physical and monetary needs and assets, formulate plans and recommendations, and present them to the Executive Committee or the membership. The committee chairman may make recommendations on motions made at regular business meetings.

ARTICLE XI

Amendments to By-Laws: Any five voting members of the Club may join in such a proposal to the By-Laws by submitting, in writing, the proposed amendment to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee, through the Secretary, shall promptly post notice of such proposal stating that action on the proposal will be taken at a meeting of the Club, called by the same notice, at a suitable time not less than two weeks from the posting of the notice. A two-thirds favorable vote of the members present at this meeting, provided a quorum is present, shall be sufficient to amend the By-Laws in accordance with the proposal and shall become effective thirty days from a favorable vote unless otherwise specified in the amendment.

GENERAL RANGE RULES

(Apply to all of The Club's ranges)

1. Treat all firearms as if they are loaded until you have personally assured otherwise.
2. Muzzles will be pointed downrange or, when in a safe area, in the designated direction at all times.
3. All shooters must keep fingers off the trigger until ready to shoot.
4. Check all barrels for obstructions before firing.
5. Actions are to be kept open except when firing, holstered, or cased.
6. Shooting is allowed from the firing line and down range only. Cross range firing is not allowed.
7. Upon hearing "Cease Fire" all shooters will open actions and will not handle firearms until an all clear signal is given or while anyone is forward of the firing line.
8. Anyone going down range must call "Cease Fire" and wait until all firearms are holstered or unloaded and made safe and grounded or benched (with the action open), boxed, or cased. No guns will be handled while personnel are down range.
9. Anyone observing an unsafe condition must call "Cease Fire".
10. Shooting while under the influence of alcohol or drugs is strictly prohibited.

"Drugs" includes any substance (legal or illegal) that impairs judgement or actions.
Certain prescription and "over the counter" medications affect your ability to shoot safely. If in doubt, consult your physician or pharmacist.
11. Shooters will remove targets and spent casings before leaving the range.
12. All firearms must be cased, holstered, or field stripped until you are at a designated safe area or a designated firing line, which is not under a Cease Fire condition.

 3. All firing must be directed downrange and within the vertical and horizontal limits of the backstop.
 4. Eye and ear protection must be worn by all shooters and spectators during firing.
 5. Shooting at paper, clay, or steel targets is preferred. Glass, porcelain, ceramic or exploding targets are prohibited. Rocks as targets constitute a serious danger from fragmentation and ricochet and shall not be used. Clay pigeons, cans, plastic bottles, and bowling pins as targets are permitted. All targets must be removed from the range when finished.
 6. Shooting at buildings, benches, signs, etc. is prohibited and may lead to criminal prosecution.
 7. Climbing on any berms is prohibited. Targets may be placed on the berm in the impact area.
 8. No one should climb the rifle range backstop unless a cease-fire has been called on both outdoor ranges.

Note: This is directed at shooters who place targets, such as clay pigeons, on the rifle range impact area.
 9. Firing of fully automatic firearms requires the following notifications and approval:
 - A. Any Executive Board member via email prior to the day of the shoot.
 - B. The Boylston Police on the day of the shoot. (508-869-2453)
 10. No vehicles are allowed on any range unless authorized by the Executive Board or their designee.
